

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###

For Immediate Release
November 18, 2009

News Release

Contact:
Linsey Whitehead
210-207-6960
linsey.whitehead@sanantonio.gov

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission announces
The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project,
a competition for local student and non-students filmmakers.

The Office of Cultural Affairs and the San Antonio Film Commission is sponsoring The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project to celebrate the opening of three new neighborhood discovery tours. The three tours are the Westside "Murals y Más" tour; the Eastside "Echoes of the Eastside" tour; and the "Downtown North River" tour stretching from downtown to the new Museum Reach river extension. The tours are available at www.saculturaltours.com.

The San Antonio Film Project is a film competition for local student and non-students filmmakers to submit original pieces by February 18, 2010 that capture the flavor and authenticity of each neighborhood profiled in the tour. Films can be from any genre, and range from anything from music videos to inspiring documentaries. Two prizes will be awarded for each of the three neighborhood tours: 1st prize in the Student Category is $1000, and 1st prize in the Professional/Amateur Category is $3000. Films will be judged by a panel of experts.

Prizewinners will be announced at the screening of the films in the spring of 2010 at the San Antonio Museum of Art. More information, rules, and entry forms can be found at www.sahearts.com.

About OCA: OCA's mission is to provide leadership and support for local arts organizations and individual artists, improving the quality of life for San Antonio citizens and visitors alike. OCA's goals include continuing the implementation of the City of San Antonio's cultural plan: The Cultural Collaborative, which supports the growth and recognition of San Antonio's creative economy.

About the San Antonio Film Commission: The San Antonio Film Commission is the central resource for filming in San Antonio and surrounding areas. For more than twenty years, the Commission has provided producers with the information and assistance they need to get projects done on time and on budget. More information can be found on their website, www.filmsanantonio.com.

For more information about The San Antonio Neighborhood Film Project, contact Sebastian Guajardo at 210.207.5798 or Sebastian.Guajardo@sanantonio.gov.

###